Customers in the region will benefit from the close proximity and a larger footprint will help other global clients to have multi-location support

Mumbai, India, June 2016 – Onward Technologies Ltd (BSE: 517536, NSE: ONWARDTEC), has opened its 11th global office in Brookfield, a suburb of Milwaukee, WI. The center will focus on catering to the customers’ needs in the mid-west region and will be strategic for Onward’s expansion plan in the Industrial Machinery & Equipment vertical. This will be the fourth office in the USA in addition to Chicago, Boston & Detroit.

“Onward has been growing at a steady pace in the US and the addition of a new office in Wisconsin is welcomed by our clients, especially in the mid-west region,” said Pratish Mehta, Vice President - Operations for North America.

Onward Technologies also relocated its UK office from Reading to Birmingham to better align with the client base the company is serving.

“I am excited for this move. At Onward, we look forward to continually aligning ourselves with clients and this office in Birmingham is a step in the right direction. As our business grows and opportunities come along, we look forward to opening additional offices within our strategically focused territories in North America, UK, and Europe,” said M.V.S.S. Narayanacharyulu, Executive Vice President - Operations.
